

Saturday, 5th - Sunday, 13th July, 2008. 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship 2008

We have now completed the second phase of the Stewardship process. At the recent working party meeting, it was decided to seek your views on the process up to this time.

Instead of a homily today, you will be asked to complete an evaluation form. If for any reason, you cannot complete the form, you are asked to complete it as soon as possible and return it next week in the collection plate. All completed forms will be processed and the results of your opinions will be published in September. Thank you for your co-operation in this important matter.

Summer Fair

Many thanks to all those who worked on our annual summer fair last weekend. The results of the prize winners in the Grand Draw are overleaf. The prizes are in the presbytery and they can be collected after Mass any day.

'Poems and Pints'

An evening on Saturday, 12th July at 7.30p.m. of music, poetry and stories to say goodbye to Martin Lewis who retires in July after 25 years at Oaklands School. To book a seat, telephone (023) 9225 9214. All proceeds to the Rowans Hospice. Licensed bar available.

Feasting on Music

We were favoured with a feast of music on Wednesday evening with Crispin Ward on the piano. He was at his best with verbal information on some of the pieces he played.

Maureen Thompson gave us visuals to go with the music. It was a most inspiring experience. Many thanks to Crispin and Maureen and to those who turned out. We collected £170 for CAFOD. Well done!

Congratulations

Congratulations to Stephen Hughes and Davina Gale who were married in St. Joseph's last Wednesday.

Family Fun Day

This new idea for the parish was a great success. It was very well attended and there was a real family atmosphere which extended to the whole pastoral area.

Many thanks to the Catenians for organising the event, to the parents and children of the 1st Holy Communion programme and to the Confirmation candidates. The weather was ideal too!

The day raised £300 for the President's charity, the Portfield School for Autistic Children - which is wonderful!

Mail Drop

This week a parish letter will be posted through every door in Nutwick Road. Please pray for everyone in this road.

A.P.F.

The annual returns for St. Joseph's parish for 2007 were £2,696. Many thanks for your generosity and the continued efforts of all the collectors.
